

IN THE AIR

Asia Week San Francisco Bay Area Announces 2015 Participants

AUGUST 5, 2015

Asia Week San Francisco Bay Area has announced the list of institutions and organizations that will join in hosting the inaugural program of exhibitions, symposiums, and artist talks centered around Asian art. Set to take place this fall, from October 2 to 10, the event promises to continue annually, nodding both to the region’s ever-growing art interests and substantial population of Asian descent. Check out the full list of the first edition’s 17 participants, below.

- ArtSpan | San Francisco, CA
- Asia Society Northern California | San Francisco, CA
- Asian Art Museum | San Francisco, CA
- Bonhams | San Francisco, CA
- Christie’s | San Francisco, CA
- Fine Arts Gallery at SF State | San Francisco, CA
- Indian Classical Music and Arts Foundation | Sunnyvale, CA
- Institute of East Asian Studies | Berkeley, CA
- International Art Gallery | San Francisco, CA
- Michaan’s Auctions | Alameda, CA
- NanHai Art | Millbrae, CA
- Peninsula Art Institute | Burlingame, CA
- Peninsula Museum of Art | San Francisco, CA
- SFO Museum | San Francisco, MA
- The Mongolia Foundation | Albany, CA
- UC Berkeley Art Museum & Pacific Film Archive | Berkeley, CA
- Warren’s Antiques | San Francisco, CA

— Anneliese Cooper (@DawnDavenport)

(Photo: Phillip Hua’s “If it happened before it will happen again,” 2015, courtesy of ArtSpan)